

10
H & R BLOCK 18 KING STREET EAST

Originally an alley way, that serviced the backs of the previous buildings and the Albion Hotel, next to it. It is a three storey wood and insul brick structure, very narrow with two windows, modern. The upper, smaller window has six small paned windows. Altogether, very plain and ugly in the middle of two similar brick buildings.